History of Anti-Semitism

Writing in the January issues of the California Jewish Voice, Los Angeles, Dr. Louis G. Reynolds gave an outline of Anti-Semitism from the historic factual angle, and also commented, between facts, giving his opinion as to the causes. I happened to read only the last two articles of a series of four.

Dr. Reynolds' presentation is emotionally restrained, it is academically earnest and gives one the impression of a serious student talking. The space here is too small to quote all the articles and analyze them, with our comment, as I usually do, to give the reader a break to get away from my own bias.

In his third article he describes the Russian Czarist pogroms, or "government-inspired and government-planned Jewish massacres". He gives the motives as follows: "The ruling classes felt, that a Jewish massacre was needed. It would divert from themselves the still mute and blindly groping revolt, which had been fermenting so long in the minds of the exploited classes. . . . . Thus, we see again, that the sole underlying motive was purely economo-political and that all other motives given were just pure camouflage."

In his fourth article, part of which appeared in the Broom of Feb. 7., Dr. Reynolds, in part, confirms the Protocols of the Elders of Zion, as well as Wm. Dudley Pelley, who is serving a penitentiary sentence on a federal conviction for sedition, for saying the same things as Dr. Reynolds said. In that article the true background of Hitler in Germany is given.

"Nazism and its attendant virulent and uncompromising anti-Semitism, are not the creations of the one man Hitler, as believed by most people. This contemptible and murderous gangster, was merely a willing pawn in a dark and sinister game, played behind a thousand screens, by the boldest crew of plotting industrialists, bankers and a motley assortment of so-called financial wizards. The unholy cabal, which brought Hitler to the front, was not concocted by Germans alone, although they were the ones to initiate and later to direct it. There were, of course, the Krupps, the Thyssens, the German Steel and Dyestuffs Trusts and all their subsidiaries to represent the German financial hierarchy. There was however also Deterding, the Anglicized Dutch oil magnate. There was Montague Norman with the Bank of England and the Vickers-Armstrong munitions interests to represent the high-finance of Britain. Then there came the enormous interests of the French Comite de Forges; the Swedish interests, as represented by the embezzler Kreuger and the enormous holdings of our American high-finance —all of them boosted by an international chain of newspapers, highly paid propagandizers and interlocking cartels."

Dr. Reynolds continues by pointing out that Jewish persecution in Germany followed after (the Jew) Bela Kun instituted a Bolshevik revolution in Hungary. He fails to state that "government-inspired and government-planned massacres" of Christians were the order of the day under Bela Kun in Hungary, but he points out that none of the democratic nations in Europe took steps to protect the Jews of Germany against the Nazis and not till the invasion of Poland did the Moguls of high finance of the "threatened Anglo-Saxon money interests in Europe" interfer, but even then the atrocities against the Jews did not lift the White Paper ban on unrestricted immigration into Palestine.

Dr. Reynolds proceeds to quote Lloyd George, Lord Lothian, Lord Halifax and Churchill to the effect that they favored a powerful Nazi Germany in Europe. He closes with "To us Jews, it should be clear, that only universal economic justice can abolish anti-Semitism. The Soviet Union has convincingly proved it. In the meantime, the Jews must avoid all reactionary associations like the plague. We must hitch our wagon to the most pronounced liberalism and to the interests not of the classes but the masses of all countries. Especially must we steer clear of the most dangerous of all Fascisms: Jewish fascism."

CLASSES & MASSES vs. AMERICANS

Dr. Reynolds, speaking as a Jew to Jews, has given a fairly good outline of Russian and German anti-Semitism. But his analysis and comments are restricted either to his lights, or his bias, or both.

In the following, perhaps not all readers will be able to go along with me, immediately, but it will stick in their subconscious, while I am sure Dr. Reynolds is able to grasp the import of my words, even though he may doubt their truth.

It makes all the difference whether one speaks as a biased Jew to biased Jews, or whether one speaks as an American to Americans. Dr. Reynolds admonishes Jews to beware of Jewish Fascism and side with the masses, does he mean against the classes? Had he included Jewish Communism in his warning we would have known he spoke as an American Jew, but when he failed to point to that re-actionary danger, but saw the picture, the partly correct picture, of anti-Semitism as Mogul inspired against revolt of the masses, and advised to join in this war with the masses against the classes, Dr. Reynolds preaches social revolution. Now perhaps he gives the clue to anti-Semitism. The Jews not only join in the revolution, they lead, plan and inspire it, and the financial Moguls, then, turn the masses against the Jews.

As an American I would advise Dr. Reynolds and all the Jews to take a new tack. In these U. S. we need not have masses and classes, Fascists and Communists, and we need not join the ones against the others.

Jewish Fascism, as represented by the Rothschilds, in cahoots with the Nazis, Lord Lothian, Lord Halifax and Churchill, produced the present war in Europe. Dr. Reynolds realized that much, said it in plain English, proved it historically with factual quotations. But here in these U. S. A. we need not grasp the hand of Jewish Communism to protect ourselves from Fascism. Our Constitution has no room for Fascism or Communism, for classes and masses. If, when and as, Jews, once landed on American soil, will leave behind their Jewish anti-Americanism and be neither liberal, nor conservative, neither democratic nor re-actionary, but just plain American, the whole war of the classes and masses is no more.

Dr. Reynolds showed us that Jews are hated in Europe by the masses and the classes. That therefore the classes always succeeded to divert the revolt of the masses by pointing to the Jew as their exploiter. And Dr. Reynolds failed to explain why the masses agreed with the classes that the Jew was guilty, otherwise the masses would not have joined in the massacres.

The cause of anti-Semitism is not politico-economic even though it lends itself to diversion of revolution against politico-economic tyranny. The cause lies much deeper.

Dr. Reynolds as a Jew for Jews attempts to whitewash them in their own Press. The Broom as a representative Aryan, represents not only the Jews who are part Aryans, but all the white race and, as a Christian, all humanity. We fail to perceive that all the world is out of step with universal law and the Jew alone is in step.

We still return to our question: "Why does nobody persecute the Quakers?"

ODE TO SPRING

Is'nt is queer,
At this time of the year
Life really is worth living.

No matter how long, or young you may be
There's something within you, that cries to be free—
It's the SPRINGTIME in your soul.

Your whole body tingles, when Spring is due
Ambitions run high, ideas are new—
You start the day off doing this—doing that
Finally wind up buying a saucy Spring hat.

With this on your head, you feel perky and gay
It's funny how hats affect one that way.
You plan a trip, a visit and dance
Transportation's a problem, but you take a chance.

Your bus is only a few hours late,
But you get where you're bound for—at any rate.
With Spring in the air—and your spirits in high
Love seems to come to you, out of the sky.

He's a handsome young soldier, with sparkling blue eyes
You KNOW he's the one;— and he feels likewise
Then all of a sudden — just like that
You're in his arms, while your hearts pitter-pat.

But patterns of Love are designed by a weaver,
Who mixes and sweetens our charms—one by one,
Then blames it on Spring for what she has done.

Fulminations vs. Education

As long as I was threatened with suppression I have been fighting for the right of expression. Having succeeded during the worst depression in the U. S. A. to produce a paper on a shoestring and maintain my editorial freedom and integrity, I was put to a harder test. How would I react to war hysteria and war pressure of "suspending the Constitution and Bill of Rights"?

I reacted in the only way a self-respecting loyal American can re-act. I withstood the hysteria and pressure and held loyally to my faith in God to help me protect the Constitution.

The people have reacted most favorably to my fearless stand. Thus I am firmly established in principle and proved my integrity in practice.

Henceforth I can be of greater service. Having won the war against tyranny, now I can present calmer and more mature consideration of the problems before us. Instead of fulminations against evils I am able to sit with you and discuss our problems in detail, pointing to their solution, as good friends and neighbors should.

He Isn't There

THE LITTLE MAN, SPANGLER, WHO WASN'T THERE

CHICAGO— "What asurance will the leaders of the Republican party give to the rank and file that they will not betray them with a New Deal Candidate as they did in 1940?"

His answer, "I am not aware that the Republican party has ever betrayed its members"! was met with cries of "Willkie," and "boos" from the 400 women present. By that inane statement, Mr. Spangler proved "he isn't there".

At this tea party in Chicago there was a light and frivolous setting—which was not in accord with the majority of serious women. The whole affair was staged on the plane of levity —Mr. Spangler said nothing, but told a joke or two as such men always do to women, with the air of one who felt "Well it isn't worth while but I'll pat them on the head—they can ring door-bells—but it is a bore."

Mrs. Baur, the Chairman, kept the questioner standing for five minutes while she told a pointless story which wasn't even funny.

Mr. Spangler said he was against only one man—Roosevelt—entirely ignoring a truth, that with either Willkie or Dewey, he is beaten before he starts.

It was an illuminating and discouraging experience: Illuminating in that the people can expect Willkie or Dewey to be the Candidate—and discouraging because their leaders are inadequate. Mr. Roosevelt has done everything he can to build up Willkie; Mr. Willkie and Mr. Dewey have the same foreign policy of International meddling as Mr. Roosevelt.

The mothers who made up the tea-party audience were serious, mothers whose sons are "over there", they were not in the mood for light jokes —they asked for bread and were given jokes and tea cakes.

The fitting sequel to this is that the Republicans and Democrats are to share the same convenient stadium. "The funeral baked meats did coldly furnish forth the marriage tables," with the same meeting place and the same platform, why not have the same candidate?

Wonder if any Americcan is fooled by the bizarre excuse: "Economy". Rather silly when the whole philosophy of the New Deal is Spend—Spend — Spend; Tax — Tax — Tax; Elect — Elect — Elect.

Instead of being a proof of unity, as one Commentator tried to make it appear, and a great improvement over Hitler, it is the rankest kind of hypocrisy. Hitler and Stalin at least would say, "There is one candidate and I'm it." They wouldn't try to kid their people by making them the victims of such a hoax—Roosevelt, Willkie or Dewey. You have no choice; no hope from the leaders of the Republican Party.

We advise the voters to see that no delegate who was in that 1940 Convention be permitted in the 1944. If a man deceives you once, that's his fault, but if he deceives you twice, that's your fault. American people, let's choose our own Candidate and make his name so heard across this land that these political jugglers won't dare thrust Willkie or Dewey down our throats. Choose an American who thinks first of America.—Women's Voice.

WHICH IS THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY ?

CHICAGO— A group of anti-administration Democrats announced formation of the American Democratic National Committee, and said it would hold a convention to adopt "a Democratic platform and nominate Democratic candidates for President and Vice-President".

Led by Harry H. Woodring, former Secretary of War in the Roosevelt Cabinet, the group issued a statement saying its convention would be in April or May.

James A. Reed, former Senator from Missouri, said after Woodring's speech that he was in accord with calling a convention, but he was "not in accord with other things that were said". He added:

"I do not agree that any man who can swear to support and defend the Constitution, then attempts to destroy it, can ever again command any respect. I am in favor of returning the powers to Congress and repudiating attacks upon Congress."

CARTELS EXPOSED ANEW

A new accusation that international cartels involving American firms hindered Allied development of synthetic rubber, magnesium, and other strategic materials while Germany was accumulating huge military stockpiles was made last week by Corwin D. Edwards, chairman of the Justice Department's anti-trust policy board.

Edwards' 77-page report based on official files was especially critical of General Electric, Standard Oil of New Jersey, E. I. du Pont de Nemours Company, American Dow Chemical, and Aluminum Company of America. A seven-point indictment of cartel policy said cartel operations tended to:

1. Conflict with and supersede national policy.
2. Weaken independent concerns.
3. Restrict efforts of consumers to get cheaper goods.
4. Set prices higher than would prevail under competition.
5. Diminish incentive to improve quality.
6. Subordinate the consumers' demand for quantity to industry's demand for additional profits.
7. Discourage invention of substitutes.

—The Progrsesive.

"And while I am talking to you, fathers and mothers, I give you one more assurance. I have said this before, but I shall say it again, and again, and again, your boys are not going to be sent into any foreign wars."—President Roosevelt.

Declared a legal newspaper of general circulation for the County and City of San Diego, in California, by Superior Court Order, January 15, 1932.

A Republican newspaper, standing for a clean sweep of the Augean stables. Fearless fighter for a truthful, just, vigilant and tolerant nationalism. Lover of the Constitution and the Founding Fathers. Defender of free speech and free press, as the foundation stones of the republican form of government. Opponent of injustice, tyranny and oppression, and of all "isms" except Americanism.

America and the Cartels

Behind this whole mess in the world lies nothing but the hand of greed and the lust for power. I have repeatedly described it as Lucifer come to lead his hosts against the plan of Providence, which is written in our hearts, namely, live and let live; love and be loved; work in peace and prosperity and enjoy the fruits of your labor.

Cartels are nothing but super-holding corporations which control certain lines of products and of industry and restrict the trade to the specific stockholders in the cartel. Behind all cartels one finds super-financial giants who most unscrupulously manipulate their holdings and exercise their power to corrupt governments and play power politics with the lives and possessions of the nations affected.

The Newdeal is nothing but the forerunner of the cartel control in the U. S. A. They are out to destroy all small, independent business and professions, and then take over the market and products under one huge control. The cartels bribe the respective governments by giving huge blocks of shares to the individuals and their families who are in power, as kings, presidents, premiers, etc, and then all pounce upon the people thus betrayed and rob them blind through regimentation, bureaucracy and if needs be, through wars.

The international financiers behind the cartels are not all Jews. But they are equally cruel and callous of the sufferings of the people they hold in bondage. It is a super-imperialism which controls the earth, not merely small nations, or portions of a large nation. The cartels are behind the murderous wars of Europe and the House of Rothschild played a notorious part in it. Now they are stretching out their octopus fangs to control the U. S. A. hide, hair and soul.

The battle will last for about two generations because the people of America are terribly gullible and so honest, they refuse to believe what is happening to them already. Thus first the worst is yet to come and then the next generation will get up on their hind legs and assert itself.

In the U. S. A. the common Jew has had opportunities, not given him anywhere else, to throw his lot in with the common people. There is so much wealth produced here to go around, that a sufficiently large proportion of Jews have been educated in our common schools & in common life with the rest of Americans, and thereby have been lifted out of the Ghetto lives of Europe to appreciate the new world that shelters them. These American Jews are going to make a common stand with the rest of us against the tyranny of the cartels, simply because the huge giants of the cartels have at all times, and everywhere, incited to pogroms against the common Jews to divert attention from themselves.

BELIEVERS IN TRADITIONAL JUDAISM BARRED; JEWISH "NATIONALISM" HIT

HOUSTON, Texas— A "statement of principle" without precedent in the annals of American Jewish congregations has been drawn up by the board of directors of reformed Congregation Beth Israel of this city, barring from voting membership all believers in "the rabbinical and Mosaic laws which regulate diet". Kashruth observers and believers in the precepts of traditional Judaism will be admitted only as non-voting members.

The congregation is headed by Rabbi H. J. Schachtel, formerly of New York, son of an Orthodox father and one of the leading figures in the American Council for Judaism. The board of directors, whose action is to be submitted for approval to a general membership meeting, proposes that applicants for voting membership be required to sign a pledge repudiating all belief in rabbinical law and subscribing the view that the Jews are neither nation, nationality nor race.

The Beth Israel leadership, harking back to the principles of the Pittsburg conference of Reformed rabbis some fifty years ago and since repudiated on numerous occasions by the Central Conference of American Rabbis, also takes to task the Union of American Hebrew Congregations for not speaking out against the Palestine resolution at the recent American Jewish Conference, and demands an investigation of the Hebrew Union College and other institutions and agencies of Reformed Judaism for the purpose of purging "nationalistic" elements.

The Beth Israel board of directors alleges that the textbooks issued by the Union of American Hebrew Congregations are too adjustable to Orthodox and Conservative schools and therefore not in the spirit of Reformed Judaism. Resentment is also expressed against the substitution of the term "Liberal Judaism" and "Reformed Judaism".

Proposed Pledge

The clauses dealing with the repudiation of rabbinical law and Jewish "nationalism" in the proposed pledge are:

"We are Jews by virtue of our acceptance of Judaism. We consider ourselves no longer a nation but we are a religious comunity and, therefore, we expect neither a return to Palestine nor a restoration of any of the laws concerning the Jewish State. We stand unequivocably for the separation of Church and State.

"We are neither a nation, a nationality nor a race. Our religion is Judaism. Our nation is the United States of America. Our nationality is American. Our flag is the "Stars and Stripes". Our race is Caucasian . . .

"We accept as binding only the moral laws of Mosaic legislation and Prophetic teaching. We reject the rabbinical and Mosaic laws which regulate diet, priestly purity, dress and similar laws which originated in ages and under influences of ideas and conditions which today are entirely unsuited, unnecessary and foreign to the beliefs and observances of progressive Judaism in modern America . . . .

Hebrew Language

"The treasures of Divine revelation were given in the Hebrew language and in such language are preserved the immortal remains of a literature that influences all civilized nations. As the fulfillment of a sacred duty, therefore, the cultivation of the Hebrew language must always be urgently desired by us.

"However, the Hebrew language has become unintelligible to the vast majority of our co-religionists; therefore, it must make way, as is advisable under existing circumstances, to intelligent language in prayer, which, if not understood, is a soulless form.

"The basis of unity among the Jews throughout the world is Religion. Hence, it is our duty to help our co-religionists whenever and wherever the need may arise, even, as we must help all mankind that may be in need, in accordance with the princciples of our faith.

"I/we having read the foregoing basic principles do subscribe to the same."—B'nai B'rith Messenger, L. A.

Will de Aryan Be Called for Trial ?

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

I have listened to some of the arguments made in the conspiracy case this week and the enclosed newspaper clippings give you a version of considerable of what happened.

Mr. Jackson, in representing the defendant, Winrod, in his argument raised the question as to whether or not the Government should not now announce whether or not it intends to move to consolidate the different indictments for trial. Mr. Rogge stated the Government would not at this time disclose its intention in this regard and the court said that since no such motion was pending there was nothing before the court in this regard to pass upon.

I will communicate with you when any information is available as to what the prosecution intends doing with the prior indictments.

New Deal Judge Rules For New Deal Prosecution

(Special to The Broom)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10— Arguments on pleas and motions in the Administration's third indictment of its critics, were taken under advisement by Justice Eicher of the Federal District court at noon today, after three and half days of hearings. Decision is expected on the 18th.

Although Justice Eicher, in answer to an attorney's plea for naming a day for starting the trial, announced that there might be no trial, it is generally believed here that he will rule on the 18th exactly as he has consistently ruled from the start of the case, namely—in favor of the prosecution.

It became clear as the hearings proceeded just why the Administration is bringing its critics to the national capital for trial. They figure that a New Deal judge will be sure to rule against every motion and pleading made by the defendants and in favor of every motion made by the Federal prosecutor (in this case O. John Rogge).

Defense Pleas Stricken

Prosecutor Rogge moved to strike from the record the 47-page 'Plea in Abatement' and the 26-page 'Motion to Quash' filed in behalf of Robert E. Edmondson of Grass Valley, California, as 'irrelevant, impertinent and scandalous'. The judge was on the point of summarily striking the Edmondson papers, but defense attorneys Messrs. Wise and Parker, although restricted in speech, were able to obtain four days time to file a memorandum in support of their plea and motion. But this is generally expected to be a useless gesture.

Can't Mention "FDR"

Col. Sanctuary's fighting attorney from New York, Henry Klein, although himself of Jewish extraction, met even a grimmer fate than the attorneys for Edmondson, Broenstrup, etc. It was his pleading which asserted that the Department of Justice, being an arm of the executive branch of our government, was being used by the Executive Roosevelt and his advisers, the Frankfurter-Rosenman camarilla, as a means of indicting and suppressing criticism and of perpetuating themselves in power in true dictatorship style.

On Mr. Rogge's objection and motion, his honor, the New Deal judge, took just one peep at the Klein paper and at once, without any argument being allowed, and over the silenced protests of Attorney Klein, ordered the document stricken from the records.

Attorney Klein's efforts to mention the name of Mr. Roosevelt almost broke up the court. He was silenced. "Lese majeste".

Broenstrup's Paper—OUT

A similar document, the "Plea in Abatement" and "Motion to Quash" by Howard V. Broenstrup, pro se, was taken up while he was absent from the court room. In similar quick fashion, without argument, his long 40-page pleading was stricken from the record, as "scandalous and impertinent". In three minutes—an "omelet"—OUT!

No "Protection of the Court"

Today Attorney Ira Chase Koehne, 72-year-old veteran of Federal and State bars, tried to show by motion that his clients, Broenstrup, Clark and Mrs. Washburn were "under the protection of the court", being under bond on the previous indictment and were therefor immune from service in this case until the former should be disposed of; unbroken precedents since 1809. But the judge ordered them to plead. Mrs. Washburn shouted, "I stand on my constitutional rights and refuse to plead". The judge ordered "not guilty" pleas for these defendants.

Rogge Defines "Sedition"

The New Deal Department of Justice, it seems, has a new definition of "sedition", not found in any statute, as follows:

"A verbal attack against the United States Government or its officials made 'by an honest citizen' would not be seditious; by a 'Nazi agent' it would."

These are the words and the definition made in Federal court Wednesday, by the tall, blond and handsome O. John Rogge, special assistant to the attorney general. He made this in reply to the scorching attack, delivered against the "fantastic" indictment by Dellmore Lessard, brilliant attorney from Portland, Oregon, representing Mrs. Dilling.

Ellis O. Jones filed a "praecipe" today, to act as his own attorney. As such he will have greater privileges of outside contacts and consultation with co-defendants and witnesses, in preparing his defense.

Kelly Joins Prosecution

One of the dramatic events of the session occurred when Frank J. Kelly, attorney for Prescott Dennett, the "shanghaied soldier", arose and announced that he, Kelly, in behalf of Dennett (who is in Camp Davis, N. C.), joined the prosecution in asking that the pleas of Edmondson and Broenstrup be "stricken". Attorney Klein interjected, "Kelly's motion is out of place; it does not concern his client and is improper".

Statue of Limitations Exceeded

Floyd Lanham, Chicago attorney representing Mrs. Elizabeth Dilling, contended in his argument that the indictment "will never sustain a conviction" because he said it was returned more than 3½ years after the crime charged in the indictment allegedly was committed.

Editor's Note: If Mr. Rogge's definition of sedition is correct, namely that what a genuine citizen says about the present administration in attacking it, would be privileged under the Bill of Rights, but what a "Nazi agent" said would be "seditious", THEN Mr. Rogge must first prove that the person so charged is a proven "Nazi agent". If a Nazi agent, that person was supposed to have registered with the Department of State. If not registered, prove him an agent and convict him, THEN only could his criticism of the administration be adjudged "seditious" under Mr. Rogge's definition.

Anti-Semitic Literature Printed In Britain Sold In Canada

NEW YORK— Copies of the Protocols of the Elders of Zion, the anti-Semitic "forgery", printed in Britain, are being sold in Toronto, Canada, it is charged by the New York newspaper PM. "The Protocols are only part of a barrage of racist propaganda loosed on Canada by the semi-fascist and racist organizations centering around the British Israelite World Federation," the special correspondent of PM writes from Toronto.

At a time when the Ministry of Economic Warfare in Britain could spare no paper for the Free French newspaper in London, large quantities of paper were released for the printing of the "forged" Protocols, it is stated. It is also charged that tons of the anti-Semitic literature were being shipped to various parts of the British Empire at the same time that shipping space was not available to send food to relieve the famine in India.

The "hate" literature is being printed by the Britons Publishing Society in London and distributed by the British Israelite Federation. The Federation preaches an Anglo-Saxon version of the master race theory.

Editor's Note: The Jewish version is that they are God's chosen to rule over all nations.

U. S. O. STOPS C. I. O. SERVICE CIRCULAR

NEW YORK— The national C. I. O. war relief committee announces it will mail copies of a pamphlet, "Races of Mankind", to servicemen in reply to a decision by the United Service Organizations forbidding distribution of the publication at U. S. O. centers.

The C. I. O. committee said copies would go to all servicemen on its mailing lists in this country and it would ask the war and navy departments to permit similar circularizing of forces overseas. The announcement was signed by Irving Abramson, chairman, and Leo Perlis, national director, of the C. I. O. committee.

The C. I. O. officials said plans for distribution of the pamphlet at U. S. O. centers had been vetoed by Chester I. Barnard, of South Orange, N. J., U. S. O. president, and his decision had been upheld by the U. S. O. board.

"We believe this pamphlet is one of the best weapons in the hands of our soldiers," the statement set forth. "It certainly is one of the best answers to Hitler's Aryan creed."

U. S. TOP COMMUNIST BACKS ROOSEVELT

BOSTON— Earl Browder, general secretary of the Communist party of the United States, indorsed President Roosevelt for a fourth term.

Browder also called for a uniting of all political parties so the president's re-election will be assured without the necessity of a campaign.

Good
THOUGHT

Good WORD — Good DEED

Why Worry About Tomorrow ?

Time and again I hear people ask, "What is going to happen to us if FDR is elected again? There will be no America left."

Of course, such a prospect is terrifying to anyone but a Christian. I used to be terrified by it. But no longer.

Since I have been jailed nothing terrifies me anymore.

I have learned to appreciate that with the criminal politicians in high office anything is possible, they respect no oath, no constitution, no law, THEREFORE my reliance is on God and not in criminals. And so I am looking toward the future with great calm. I am in God's service, whatever task comes my way I am ready to tackle it and acquit myself honorably; I am no shirker.

If you only knew the peace and assurance when you no longer look to fools, morons and criminals for the guidance of your life. Let them do whatever they chose! There is a mightier power ruling over our destinies. And from this power do we receive our instructions what to do, to HIM alone are we accountable for our life and actions, our thought and feelings.

You see, the politicians come and go; wars come and go; but God is always with you. Once you give yourself to HIS service and none else, there comes your peace and assurance. OUT of such men and women America will be reborn.

OLD MISSIONS IN CALIFORNIA

Ernest Crutcher, M. D., Los Angeles, Calif.

It is singular how stubbornly persistent is the urge of someone in authority in our public schools to insist that the history and services of the missions and priests be instilled in the minds of California pupils, regardless of the grade, to the neglect of more important facts of historical interest and practical utility in later life. Teachers groan and secretly complain of the constant loads they receive of pictures, stories, literature, etc., concerning not one but all the missions, which, until lately, had been forgotten. The stories of the missions have been revived now because an imaginative and romantic play has proven such a success, resulting in a source of revenue in the way of admissions and perquisites at old mission ruins or churches.

Much of this propaganda is based on tales that have no bias in truth. The real history of the padres is scrupulously hidden, that the priests were brought along by the Spanish soldiers and buccaneers to ward off the fabled goblins, demons, winged serpents, and frightful imaginings of a new region. Few of these priests could even read or write, and their principal acquirement was the memorized Latin prayers that they repeated when needed. The degraded servitude that was imposed upon the Indians is carefully ignored, and books by early historians that told of these acts have been sought out and destroyed.

Even if these conditions were untrue, does California history justify such tremendous sacerdotal partiality in the curricula of the schools? Stories told often enough actually become factual to hearers. The story of the missions might be wreathed with romance, if it pleases Jesuitry, but let this unimportant, actually sordid, mite of history not displace vital facts that might be of use to the child in adult life.

How mission history can avail in a boy's or girl's capability of earning a livelihood in mature years is perplexing. Such propaganda is resented by truth-seekers and those of practical intelligence. Let us have less of such history that has an ulterior motive and that can be of no help in the practicalities of life.

NEW AGE Editor's Comment: The ill treatment which the Indians received at the hands of the padres in the early days was more severe than the treatment of the Negroes as charged against the people of the Old South.

Jeanette Rankin and Japanese Atrocities

'BRUTAL'
ANNOUNCEMENT OF ATROCITIES HELD

WASHINGTON— Dr. V. H. Spensley, of Albuquerque, N. M., chosen national chairman of Bataan relief organizations, charged that the war and navy departments had been "brutal and dastardly" in their telling of Japanese atrocities on prisoners in the Philippines.

Leading in the amalgamation of 34 Bataan relief groups, he said that while he had no criticism of the departments for releasing the facts, the delay in doing so and the way it was done—through stark reports from men who had escaped—had been cruel to families of men captured in the islands.

DAMON RUNYON on BATAAN .

How will history view our military disaster in the Philippines, the memory of which has been revived by the tales of Japanese barbarities toward our captured soldiers?

Will the failure to attempt to relive MacArthur and his beleaguered men be accepted as something wholly unpreventable and perhaps even military necessary, or will it be analyzed as one of the most cowardly abandonments of a like nature in the annals of any nation?

You will remember that the apologists for Washington managed at the time to dismiss the Philippines as a minor incident of the war, as a small circumstance that did not amount to much against the background of larger events.

You will remember that even as our western boys and our Filipino troops were making a stand on Bataan peninsula that for fortitude and valor surpassed any forlorn hope defense in the history of the world, we had the astounding situation in this country of newspaper columnists telling us we should not digress from the war to save other peoples merely to rescue our own.

And one of these days the cold light of analysis will be thrown upon the matter. And men will talk who can not talk now and the apologists may find difficulty in explaining the amazing shrinking of even the slightest effort to relieve MacArthur.

All the time that I was in jail I comforted myself that I was not a Japanese prisoner, as some of our boys were. They and I are fighting in the same war against alien invasion. I on the home front, they as expendables. How I loathed that word, expendables. That our own boys should be just nothing more than expendable! it wrung my heart even if it did not of those in power.

Immediately after Congress declared a state of war to exist, you read in The Broom a protest against the ghoulish glee which accompanied the declaration. The members of Congress had howled like Indians on the warpath. Glee over what? Over the expendables, our own sons, stationed or to be shipped to the Pacific to be sacrificed, killed, maimed, driven insane! When all along the general staff had known and figured that the Philippines were lost to the Japs. I stated then that Congress should have gone into mourning out of respect for our dead at Pearl Harbor and the dead to come, rather than act like drunken Indians on the warpath.

The "nation" was indignant at the lack of "patriotism" of Jeanette Rankin. Well, Jeanette Rankin, being just a woman, a "foolish" woman, thought of the "expendables" instead of Churchill's glee that the war he had worked for, and hoped for, and prayed for had finally caught US and the U. S. Jeanette Rankin thought of our unpreparedness to meet the Japs.

And now the state department revealed thru Mr. Hull that Ambassador Grew reported the Japs did not want to go to war with U S but had established a new administration charged by the Mikado to avoid war and they sent out negotiators to Washington. But President Roosevelt took matters in his own hands. He presented an ultimatum to Japan ordering them to withdraw from all conquered territory, and Hull admits this demand was unacceptable so that messages were sent to our army and navy in the Pacific to be on the alert for an attack.

Now, when President Roosevelt is being "drafted" for a fourth term, suddenly the Japanese atrocities stories are released, stories which all of us, who know the Orient, knew all this time, but we were not permitted to disclose them under pain of "sedition" trials and jail. But this disclosure NOW excites people enough to forget the cold facts which nobody can erase, which facts I am compelled as a thoughtful and reasoning American citizen to make public during this hysteria.

If I had been charged with the responsibility of Commander-in-Chief of the armed forces, and loved our American boys first, and was the best informed man in these 48 states, and the general staff told me that we could not hold the Pacific possessions in the Philippines against the first Japanese onslaught, I would have dickered with the Japs long enough to do one of two things: I would have evacuated all territories marked by my military staff as "lost" while continuing to dicker with the Japs, because my American boys are not expendable in my eyes while I am responsible for them, except in extreme and unforseen emergencies. But when my military advisors foresee the loss of the islands, then I'd be murdering my own people to present terms to the Japs which I know to be unacceptable and must invite attack when the Japs outnumber us and are better equipped for the moment to drive us out, instead of us driving them out thru such an ultimatum as Mr. Roosevelt reportedly gave them.

Or if I did not see fit to evacuate the "expendable" territories I would have dickered long enough to remedy our unpreparedness and to really hold our possessions by armed force.

Anyone familiar with Mongolian psychology knows that, especially in Japan, the Samurai class has been training their soldiers to utmost ferocity. For this reason, while I was in jail and felt bad about it, I continued to remind myself that I was not a prisoner of the Japs.

While our people are belatedly informed of Japanese atrocities, Jeanette Rankin went thru a 1000 hells when she voted "NO" on the war. She suffered all those hells the army and navy departments now announce, which our boys went thru and some yet go thru.

As for myself, I have been living in a daze of pain ever since Pearl Harbor. While the cruel facts are facts, I who know the facts behind the facts, resent most pointedly hearing that "our President is divinely led and inspired". To claim that God inspired the acts which led to our loss of the Philippines and the ensuing loss of life with resultant atrocities of a Mongolian, victory drunk, mob led and incited by Samurais against "the white devils", is to paint God as the most gruesome devil of them all.

All this does not mean that I condemn all Japanese people indiscriminately any more than I condemn all Jewish people when I expose a certain trend. But the trend must not be ignored, the consequences are terrible.

BENJAMIN DECASSERES

The sleepy heads and post-war blue-sky boys in Washington should paste the following in their derbies and homburgs Homer Lea wrote it in 1909 in his book, "The Valor of Ignorance":

"Nearly 15 years ago the value of the Hawaiian Islands and the necessity of this possession to any nation who would be sovereign over the Pacific were recognized by Japan.

"When this Republic annexed the islands at that time Japan alone protested and notified the American Government that she would not then nor at any time in the future acquiesce in the control of the Hawaiian Islands by this nation.

"Years have passed, but the protest of Japan has never been withdrawn nor have preparations ever ceased to bring about in due time its enforcement.

"This Republic may forget, or after its conquest sleep, but in that silent pentagon where rest together the scepter of the Mikado and the sword of the Samurai there is no forgetfulness, and in their slumbers—dreams."

That explains Pearl Harbor 32 years afterward.

TOTALITARIANISM IN GOVERNMENT, JURIST CHARGES

ST. LOUIS— Asserting Americans "are groaning under the oppression being heaped upon them by irresponsible agents in federal bureaus," Chief Justice James P. Alexander of the Texas Supreme Court, addressing lawyers of seven Midwestern states at the Jefferson Hotel, declared "our republican form of government is being undermined" and totalitarianism substituted.

Urging lawyers and Judges to at "every opportunity" address public gatherings & "espouse the virtues of the judicial system", the speaker asserted: "Our people are groaning now under the oppression being heaped upon them by irresponsible agents in federal bureaus and they will listen to you now, even though they would not have been willing to do so a few years ago when we were ruled by law and not so much by bureaucratic decree."

'HARMLESS AS A DOVE, BUT BE WISE, TOO'

Dear Kosti:

The issue of the 31st is one of your greatest. Your own writings are masterpieces, not only in composition, rhetroic, etc., but in soul. One does not have to agree with everything in them to appreciate them (not that I've noticed anything against my own grain in a long while). May I bring forward two important suggestions?—

I am a little fearful that your use of the word "Jew" or "Jewish" in HEADLINES may bring you trouble. * * * In the 31st issue, you could have had headlines as follows: "Are THEY Americans?" "No Koshers Wanted", etc. The "612 Jewish Martyrs" would not offend them, because of the word "martyrs". The articles are splendid and educational. Jewish enemies simply hold up your paper and point out the different headings with the word "Jew" and it horrifies the frightened "Semites", who immediately go to Roosevelt . . . sending from 5,000 to 10,000 letters a day to Bishop Mooney, asking that Fr. Coughlin be taken off the air; & he went.

Atlhough the issuance of government non-interest-bearing notes as legal tender would have been all right in peace times up to the point of full production (as Hitler showed in Germany) & would have ended the depression, Roosevelt had bonded the country to enormous heights before our war broke out and the currency that was put out by 1941 reached saturation point. The bonds now being put out DOES stave off the "break" for awhile. But to issue straight currency and pass up the bonds NOW would speedily result in a disastrous inflation.

In the best 1929 normal "bull" times, there were around $6,500,000,000 in currency circulation; and bank-credit "deposit" obligations of the banks of close to 70 billions. The latter now run close to 100 billions, while the amount of paper money in circulation, reported in N. Y. Herald Tribune last Sunday, exceeded 20 billions, or THREE TIMES the mount in circulation in 1929 and '30. I TAKE THE SEMI-ANNUAL REPORTS OF THE FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION, and have done so since its organization ten years ago; a most interesting financial report.

Ordinarily the chief assets of the banks are the private notes of business corporations; now the chief assets of the banks are the U. S. bonds, over two to one, nearer three to one, which shows how we are being transformed into a SOCIALIST FEDERAL STATE.

Sincerely, — — —

"At the request of the authors, Bernt Balchen and Corey Ford, the entire royalties of these articles have been donated to the Army Air Forces Air Society, Inc., to be used for the postwar assistance of Air Corps personnel and their dependents." —COLLIER'S for February 19, 1944.

Editor's Note: When the nation spends 300 billions for destruction it should not be necessary to apply private charity "for the postwar assistance" of its national victims. This cruelty speaks volumes.

Chinese Immigration

When the last white man has disappeared from the world, there will be far more Chinese and Japanese than there are now. They will have, by that time, probably overrun the whole western half of what is now the United States.

Repeal of the Chinese exclusion act is an entering wedge. Admitting annually 105 Orientals, to become perpetual advocates of loosened immigration restrictions, plus 10,000 coolies by annual smuggling, will not do either the United States or China one particle of good. It will ultimately do us great harm.

If these Chinese legal immigrants are of the highest type, they can by staying at home do their own country greater good than they can possibly do ours. We have our own men of ability. If they are of the middle class, seeking jobs here, they will only increase our own after war employment problems. If they are of the lowest class, they will be of a type wholly unfit for citizenship in a republic.

No white group can absorb Chinese. Mix the two and the Chinese will absorb the white every time.

It is impossible for a Chinese person to become the parent of a child with blue eyes, or light hair or fair skin, because the Oriental carries in his germ plasm only dark cells. Mixing a half-glass of black ink with a half-glass of water will never produce white water.

The whole quota system should be eliminated, and all immigration for citizenship abolished, except by special acts of Congress covering specific cases of immigrants previously examined and known to be needed in our economy and citizenship.—HUDSON De PRIEST.

MY ADVENTURES IN AMERICA

By C. Leon de Aryan

Love Your Enemies

"It is better to have loved and lost than not to have loved at all."

As soon as I was jailed on July 22, 1942, and thereafter, when I was transported to the Los Angeles county jail and to the Washington, D. C. Jail & Asylum, I "escaped" the hardships of jail by projecting my attention on the spiritual life within. As never before, this period was one of very intensive experience. Physically I was jailed, spiritually I was in the most wonderful company imaginable. Of course, this attitude did not prevail 24 hours of the day & night. I had to come to earth, too, and experience the hardships and terrors of being buried alive. So I had my fill of it, which in time I shall use for improvement of jail conditions. Nothing is ever lost, when a man of my caliber is sent through the mill it is for the study of existing conditions, to procure a factual basis for improvement and progress. The persecuted ones of one period become the govrernment of the next. Such is the history of progress.

In order to escape the suffering and to forget my surroundings, I dwelled considerably upon the life of the Christ. How did he manage to love his enemies and even pray for them with his last breath? You must understand that I had been preparing myself for this jail period already two years before it happened. My instructors had informed me telepathically many a time that I was to be jailed and to get used to the idea. So I had been training myself how to escape spiritually, as much as possible, the hardships of imprisonment. Thus I always went to bed with the most wonderful devotion to duty, since I was to be incarcerated in the line of duty, as an American and as a Christian, by the motley crowd of Newdealers who are out to destroy our Constitution and establish their dictatorship over us, with the Jewish ideology prevailing over the Christian. In this thought I either fell asleep, or when unable to sleep because of vermin in the San Diego jail and the noise of the delirious tremens drunks, as well as the impossible bedding, then I entered into a state of semi-consciousness by which telepathic communion was even more intensified and I visited with my invisible friends. Thus in either case, whether I slept or not, I profited, even though the body was going down, and down, because of the strain and waste of the nervous exhaustion.

Since I was very interested to get a taste of the state in which Jesus was able to love his enemies and pray for them with his last breath, finally I received the telepathic message that my wish would be granted after I left D. C. jail and returned to San Diego. I also was very much interested to understand the Judas incident, the attitude of both master and pupil and how it came about that Jesus, though knowing he was to be betrayed and crucified in Jerusalem, never made an effort to protect himself or get rid of Judas. It was promised me that I would learn to know the whole situation by personal experience.

I returned to San Diego in April 1943, and EXACTLY ONE YEAR from my arrest, on July 23, 1943, I met the young woman who was to give me the personal experience of what Jesus had passed through. Anyone who imagines that life in this world is haphazard and just happens by chance, can now follow the perfect order in which things turn out. No sooner were "Blondie" and I seated with our trays at the table in the Cafeteria, than I realized here was the person who was promised me. I was fascinated and afraid at the same time. But naturally having asked for it, I would not for the world have receded. In the course of our various meetings I told her frankly that I could not trust her and that it would be the greatest miracle if we ever were to become friends, but Marion insisted that life itself is the greatest miracle, still the most natural thing, thus she assured me the miracle would happen if I only trusted her completely and loved her, for loving her would be the best investment of my life. And if any woman has made a scientific practice of how to win love, she certainly is past master. Were she to live in the days of Salem they, no doubt, would burn her alive at the stake as a witch.

When a man returns from jail he is "shell shocked". I still have not fully recovered from it. But at that time I was much more vulnerable to a lovely woman's affection than I am now. Any man who is reconvalescent, any soldier who returns to "civilization" after a long absence from womankind, and I was in jail for 6 thousand years, not six months only; knows how susceptible one is even to the sight of a woman. It's such a new experience, such a marvel, and then to have one of these "angels" come and tell you she loves you, asks you to hug her in public, and puts her arms around you and kisses you before getting out of your car at her hotel, as if it were the most natural thing.

Thus my promise was fulfilled. I received the Judas kiss and embrace and know exactly how Jesus loved Judas, knew how he was to be betrayed, who was to betray his trust, but did not run away and went through the whole procedure in line of duty. As soon as I caught Marion telling me untruths, which were evident on the face of it, under normal conditions it would have been the last I'd seen of her. But in this case I merely warned her not to play with holy fires because she was in danger of being awfully burnt. Since she represented herself as a Christ missionary, it became my business, in line of duty, to take her at her word and go all the way with her. "If somebody makes you walk a mile with them, you go twain". So I had to give her every chance in the world to make good.

During my jail period I thought a lot of God and the Christ. How fair and impartial they are in this war. They do not take sides. All who break the Ten Comandments and murder and pillage are equally guilty before God, thus He could not side with one camp against the other but lets the Sun shine impartially. If God damned one camp or the other, how easy it would be to exterminate the "guilty" by an "act of God", just stop the sun from shining on them, and how soon they would be down on their knees wimpering for mercy. But God and the Christ LOVE ALL HUMANITY. It was part of the promise given me, as a reward for my willingness of going through the ordeal of jail and persecution for righteousness' sake, that I would be taught the bliss of loving all humanity, and that is what concerns me more than all the wars in the world. When one achieves the state where he can love all humanity, wars are a thing of the past for him. And when that state becomes the normal state of human beings, then we will have the "four freedoms, everywhere in the world". How remarkable that a man, like myself, who works to achieve that very thing so sanctimoniously put in the President's mouth by his inspirational ghost writer Sam I. Rosenman, is thrown in jail by the Newdeal crowd of Jews, Communists, Labor Racketeers and political turncoats.

But after Marion Fay succeeded in inducing me to love her with all the might of my soul, as one of Christ's representatives on earth, and such a person is a high official in the KINGDOM, believe me, suddenly Miss Fay turned around and astounded me by saying that I must regard FDR as divinely inspired and that I owe him the loyalty due the Christ. Her notion is that "God loves America and selected FDR to lead us", therefore we owe him absolute loyalty and blind obedience.

Place yourself in my hide. Though I knew I could not trust that woman, but in line of duty I must give her the full benefit of the doubt and walk with her the full mile, I had not only let her kindle the most wonderful fires of love IN THE NAME OF THE CHRIST, for she showed me a marvelous picture of the SON of MAN (painted by Sallman) in whose service she claimed to be contacting me, saying that she had received "orders" to that effect in one of her dreams, but I gave myself completely into her trust as if she were no four flusher. You see, one has to do these things otherwise one does NOT walk the FULL mile.

Then she told me that since I was against Roosevelt she could not publicly associate with me because it would ruin her business by which she was making a living. I made various efforts, saying that the Christ protects his own, to induce her to change her mind, but she enjoyed ridiculing me and had the most satisfactory time seeing what power she had to make me suffer. She denounced me, to her friends and mine.

She does to this day not realize why I suffered.

When one poses as an official of the KINGDOM, wins a soul's complete confidence in that representation and then substitutes a corrupt politician who never knew the value of a promise and has no sense whatever of intellectual honesty and integrity, and tells me that I owe that creature the allegiance due God and our loyalty to the Constitution, that person is in danger of terrific punishment. And she ridiculed me when I stood aghast at her temerity in switching loyalties. But I took her at her word and walked another mile with her . . . NO, I walked the other miles alone, she dared not walk with me for fear of losing business . . . I learned to project all my love, she had kindled in me, on Roosevelt and the Jews. And I succeeded.

Thus it is perfectly plain that God moves in mysterious ways His wonders to perform. And having learned to love two of my enemies I kept on going, I love them ALL. It is the most marvelous revelation because it projects one into the viewpoint of the Almighty. God loves ALL. The Christ loves ALL.

Thus Marion Fay fulfilled her mission to perfection. I loved her, I love FDR, I love the Jews and the Communists, Stalin, Churchill, Hitler and the Mikado. There is no end to LOVE. That love lifts one way above foolish men and women who seek the "four freedoms, everywhere in the world" by breaking every one of God's commandments. It has made a Christian out of me in practice, as well as principle.

And so, let us pray for those who use high sounding phrases, who stand in public places, like the scribes and Pharisees, and pretend to be God's chosen.

"Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do!"

Editor's Note: Some of my friends say that it is not proper to publish "private affairs" and air them in public; they are "disgusted" with me. They should know better. Beginning with the Tenney committee in Califiornia, Walter Winchell, Robert Arden, "Under Cover", the FBI, the B'nai B'rith, the KEYHOLE, PM, Life, the daily and weekly press, and the U. S. Dept. of Justice, etc., my private life has become a public affair. Whatever I do is distorted, whatever I say is misconstrued. I am living in a goldfish bowl. The best way to meet the situation is by a frank exposition of my own. Thus my personal experiences are made to serve a good cause. Whoever does not dare appear with me in the public limelight had better leave me alone and not tangle with me, charging me with DISLOYALTY to the U. S. A. because I refuse to worship Roosevelt. Millions of women in Germany worshipped Hitler, now look how they pay for it! No man is good enough to take the place of God, playing God is the most dangerous thing. Whoever plays with holy fires must expect to be burnt..

FEDERAL CITY

By WASHINGTON ADAMS

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 15— Our "Federal City", as George Washington called the nation's capital, is buzzing with comment over the startling disclosure of William La Varre, who, seeing the spectre of bolshevism being ushered into America by the notorious New Deal, has in protest resigned his position as chief of the American Republic's Division of the Department of Commerce.

What he says is strangely reminiscent (and prophetic) of the revelations made by the late Dr. Wirt of Indiana, who as early as 1934 swore on the stand here in Washington that the New Dealers were really disguised Bolsheviks, planning to communize the United States by slow stages. Here are Mr. Lavarre's warning words:

> "I have witnessed a constant attempt to change the heritage of private enterprise and personal initiative into a system of socialistic, collectivistic commerce patterned along the formula of Russia's state-owned Amtorg corporation, to do away with our established private-brand names, and to promote the future commerce of the United States exclusively through state-owned corporations."

Vice-President Wallace in his Western speeches, referring to all "old American" believers in "free enterprise" as "fascists", seems to confirm the viewpoint of Mr. LaVarre. It is recalled that Mr. Wallace in 1935, in his book, "Whose Constitution?", concluded with the hope that America could get rid of the old Constitution without bloodshed!

CAN A PRESIDENT BE AN "ENEMY OF HIS COUNTRY?"

No one can deny that Americans once believed strongly in "freedom of speech". And exercised it, even against a President.

From 1826 to 1886 Benjamin Perley Poore held offices in Washington, mostly as a Librarian of Congress, and being a good mixer wrote a fascinating book, "Perley's Reminiscences of 60 Years in the National Metropolis". (It is almost as gossipy as "Pepy's Diary")—On page 224 of Vol. 2 he says:

> "In the impeachment trial of President Johnson . . . an amusing feature of Mr. Evarts' argument was his illustration of the 'proprieties of speech', as shown in the official report of the debates (in the Senate). He read from the Congressional Globe (as the "Congressional Record" was then called) that Senator Sumner had called Andrew Johnson an 'ENEMY OF HIS COUNTRY', and had been called to order. Senator Anthony, in the chair, said that it was USUAL AND PROPER TO CALL THE PRESIDENT AN ENEMY OF HIS COUNTRY, and Senator Sherman scouted the idea that Senator Sumner was out of order, saying that he had HEARD SUCH LANGUAGE IN THE SENATE FIFTY TIMES. Senators were a good deal amused at this exhibition of their record."

But, oh boy those were the "good old days" of American liberty and freedom of speech and press, and of a thousand of other free things now restrained.

In Andrew Jackson's day, Presidents could not get away with insults to Congress, which is the real ruler of our nation. Because "Old Hickory" disobeyed the wish of Congress, the Democratic (!) Senate passed a resolution censuring President Jackson, great man though he was.

"Old Hickory" hated debt as he hated the devil; was the ONLY President ever to "pay the national debt in full." He did not tax the people to death. His treasury was overflowing with surplus money from the tariff revenues, and he, knowing the corrupting power of gold, decided to divide and send back the surplus money to the States according to population.

It was a godsend to many states. With the money which North Carolina thus received as its share, it built a State-owned railroad and an insanse asylum. (Jackson's denoument was not quite so good; but God bless his memory up to this point). He also made France pay her debt to us, after breaking diplomatic relations as a means of pressure.

We had real Americans in those days, and Presidents who stood for "America First" at all times, along with friendly intercourse with all nations.

(Read in our next release what Benjamin Franklin said about despotism).

de Aryan 'Nominated' for Congress

By Fred W. Mitchell

(In the Carlsbad (Calif.) Journal)

We have constantly urged District Attorney Thomas Whelan to become a candidate for Congress on the Republican ticket, but as yet we have had no affirmative response. There are several who would like to be drafted by the party, such as Jeanette Daley, who changed her registration from Democratic to Republican in order that she might be drafted; Charles Fletcher son of the grand old man who has thrilled us for years with his stories that are sometimes comparable to the tales of Major Hoople; and Ed Hope, the big stock and bond salesman; and, of course, there is always Mr. de Aryan. As we view it here, with a preponderant Democratic registration in the county, the only man suggested as a candidate for the Republican nomination that can defeat the Virginia planter who resides on his estate along the peaceful Potomac, but who none the less holds his seat in Congress from this county, is Mr. Whelan. We know this to be a fact after consulting with several members of organized labor, who are actively Democrats but who nevertheless will actively support Mr. Whelan as a Republican candidate for Congress because they believe he will be fair to labor and to all other interests—and to all peoples of every race, creed or nationality.

The Oil Cartel

NEW YORK— New York executives had feared that the projection of the federal government into the oil business would destroy the equilibrium of the global zones parceled out among giant corporations.

In fact, Walter Teagle was made head of Standard Oil because years ago, with the late Sir Henri W. A. Deterding, director general of the Royal Dutch Petroleum Co., he established these spheres. After an era of cutthroat competition American capitalists chose Teagle to try to settle this rivalry.

Sir Henri was known as a shrewd trader. He once tore up a contract for a specific salary, replacing it with one which gave him less but provided that he receive 10 percent of all Shell profits; in a short while he made $100,000,000.

Setting business aside for the moment, Teagle inveigled the magnate into a game of poker. At 3o'clock in the morning the American broached the subject and Sir Henri impulsively agreed to a division of markets. By evening of the next days the deal was settled and, generally speaking, the agreement has been in existence ever since.

But had the administration promoted its original intention of government control in Arabia, the entire arrangement would have been nullified.—Albert N. Leman.
